Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)*(c) Place of Compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
  - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
  - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

- (i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.
- (ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

EXHIBIT A
BCB CHEYENNE LLC D/B/A BISON BLOCKCHAIN'S
SUBPOENA DUCES TECUM TO ANTHONY APOLLO TO PRODUCE
DOCUMENTS IN A CIVIL ACTION

Anthony Apollo is commanded to produce copies of the following documents to Patrick J. Murphy at Williams, Porter, Day & Neville, P.C. at 159 N. Wolcott Street, Suite 400, Casper, WY 82601 or by e-mailing the documents to pmurphy@wpdn.net by January 5, 2024 at 9:30 a.m., as follows:

DEFINITIONS

1. "Document" shall have the full meaning ascribed to it in Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and shall include every writing or record of every type and description, including, but not limited to, agreements, contracts, contract files, correspondence, memoranda, publications, pamphlets, promotional materials, studies, books, tables, charts, graphs, schedules, e-mails, text messages, photographs, films, voice recordings, reports, surveys, analyses, journals, ledgers, telegrams, stenographic or handwritten notes, minutes of meetings, transcripts, financial statements, purchase orders, vouchers, invoices, bills of sale, bills of lading, credit and billing statements, checks, manuals, circulars, bulletins, instructions, sketches, diagrams, computer programs, printouts, punch cards, tabulations, logs, telephone records, desk calendars, diaries, appointment books, computer data, tapes, and disks; and includes all drafts or copies of every such writing or record whenever a draft or copy of a document is not an identical copy of the original or where such draft or copy contains any commentary or notes that do not appear on the original.
2. "Communications" shall mean all written, oral, telephonic, electronic, e-mail, text, or other transmittal of words, thoughts, ideas, and images, including, but not limited to, inquiries, discussions, conversations, negotiations, agreements, understandings, meetings, letters, notes, telegrams, advertisements, press releases, publicity releases, trade releases, and interviews.

3. The term "relating to" shall mean directly or indirectly mentioning or describing, comprising, consisting of, referring to, reflecting on, or being in any way logically or factually connected with the matter discussed.

4. The term “digital mining” shall mean the process that Bitcoin and other Proof of Work (PoW) cryptocurrencies use to generate new coins and verify new transactions. It involves vast, decentralized networks of computers (application-specific integrated circuit computers or “ASICs”) around the world that verify and secure blockchains – the virtual ledgers that document cryptocurrency transactions. In return for contributing their processing power, computers on the network are rewarded with new coins: the miners maintain and secure the blockchain, the blockchain awards the coins, the coins provide an incentive for the miners to maintain the blockchain.

5. The term “cryptocurrency” shall mean any form of currency that exists digitally, usually (until recently) having no central issuing or regulating authority, and that relies on cryptography to prevent counterfeiting and fraudulent transaction (e.g., Bitcoin, Ethereum, Cardano, Stable Tokens such as USDT, USDC, the Wyoming Stable Token (“WST”), and Central Bank Digital Currencies (“CBDCs”), including the Digital Yuan (“e¥”).

DOCUMENTS REQUESTED

- I. Copies of your official diploma(s) from Fordham University for your undergraduate and graduate degrees.
- II. All Documents and Communications including all e-mails sent by, to, and between you and Erick Rengifo, PhD and/or Jiaming Li, PhD during (a) the time period you attended Fordham University and (b) from January 2021 to present.
- III. Documents and Communications relating to the dates of your relocation from New York to Wyoming. Note: this request seeks one or two documents showing the timeline/dates that you moved to Wyoming (i.e., the day/month and year).

- IV. Your Documents and Communications, including emails, with individuals known or reasonably believed by you to be Chinese foreign nationals relating to cryptocurrencies from January 2022 to present. Note: we are not requesting documents and communication between you and Xiaomeng Zhou. Your communication with Mr. Zhou is not relevant to this civil action.
- V. Your Documents and Communications, including all e-mails with, to, or from Christopher Rothfuss, PhD relating to cryptocurrencies and/or digital mining from January 1, 2023 to present.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 13th day of December 2023.
